Le Tour du Mont-Blanc n'a pas fini d'attirer à lui de nouvelles générations de marcheurs dans l'un des sites naturels les plus prestigieux de la planète. La force des paysages glaciaires surprend toujours le randonneur. Nul besoin d'une longue marche d'approche himalayenne pour venir tutoyer ici des glaciers toujours en mouvement : craquements des séracs, chutes de piliers, imposants fronts glaciaires. Cet univers de glace mêlé à celui du granit donne au massif son visage de faces rocheuses verticales. Mais le Mont-Blanc sait offrir aussi un décor pastoral fait de vastes alpages pour les troupeaux de vaches tarines à la robe rousse. Quelques lacs sont comme des perles posées dans un écrin de nature. Et le massif est un refuge pour la flore et la faune d'Europe, véritable jardin botanique alpin.
